

Children and Adults with Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (CHADD)

CHADD improves the lives of people affected by ADHD

Goals and Priorities

CHADD has three current priority objectives:

- Serve as a clearinghouse for evidence-based information on ADHD
- Serve as a local face-to-face family support group for families and individuals affected by ADHD
- Serve as an advocate for appropriate public policies and public recognition in response to needs faced by families and individuals with ADHD

CHADD is a national non-profit, tax-exempt [Section 501(c)(3)] organization providing education, advocacy, and support for individuals with ADHD.

CHADD has been at the forefront in creating and implementing programs and services in response to the needs of the ADHD community through collaborative partnerships and advocacy including:

- Training for parents and K-12 teachers
- Hosting educational webinars and workshops presented by leading ADHD experts
- Providing an informational clearinghouse for the latest evidence-based ADHD information
- Providing health information specialists providing support to individuals who need a wide range of services from crisis intervention to referrals for healthcare or legal professionals

PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

Local Support Groups

More than 100 support groups across the United States, CHADD offers assistance at the community level by encouraging peer relationships, fostering connectedness, and enhancing access to local resources

Parent to Parent Program

Designed by parents for parents, this 14-hour, multisession, interactive on demand, webinar, and in-person training program assists families in navigating the challenges of raising children with ADHD.
