

View this email in your browser

 Share
  Tweet
  Forward

in this issue...

- It's Time to File Your Taxes—Don't Panic!
- Half of Children Who Need Mental Health Care Don't Get It
- Charter Schools and Students with ADHD
- Know What To Look For In A Summer Camp
- ADHD in the News

It's Time to File Your Taxes—Don't Panic!

Tax season is upon us. Are you ready or could you use a little help? We found some resources you can use.

Half of Children Who Need Mental Health Care Don't Get It

A recent study shows a high number of children with a diagnosis such as ADHD don't receive the care they need. Researchers are considering why that may be.

Charter Schools and Students with ADHD

CHADD's public policy committee wants to know more about the possible benefits and drawbacks of charter school programs for children who struggle with ADHD symptoms. The public policy committee is interested in your family's experience.

Ask the Expert

Know What To Look For In A Summer Camp

Featuring John Willson, MS, LRT/CTRS
Tuesday March 19, 2019 | 2 pm ET

Register Now

Are you looking for a summer adventure for your child? Knowing what to look for in a camp or summer program when your child has ADHD is important for a successful experience.

John Willson, director of SOAR Camp, has tips for families trying to make sense of the different types of summer programs available. Join us to learn how to:

- Evaluate summer programs and their staff
- Create a checklist of questions to ask program providers
- Understand differences between summer programs roles

John Willson, MS, LRT/CTRS, has spent 30 years working in youth programs with an emphasis on youth diagnosed with LD and ADHD. He became SOAR's director of LD and ADHD Services in 1994 and in 2013 he became the executive director. He has lead hundreds of adventure courses in North Carolina, Florida, Alaska, Utah, Wyoming, Maine, Costa Rica, and Belize. Mr. Willson has been a member of the CHADD Board of Directors.

The logo features a stylized orange sunburst or flower icon to the left of the text "ADHD in the News". "ADHD" is in a bold, blue, sans-serif font, while "in the News" is in a blue, cursive script font.

ADHD in the News

- The Creativity of ADHD
- 1 in 3 students with ADHD receive no school interventions
- 6 Tips to Maximize Productivity When You Have ADHD
- 3 Small Ways Businesses Can Create Huge Changes For Women With Disabilities
- ADHD testing after 'impulsive crime' arrests should be mandatory, MPs say
- ADHD Medication Does Not Increase Seizure Risk

Read these and other articles in the ADHD in the News weekly digest.

Did You Know?

More than 20 genetic studies show ADHD is inherited from one's parents for the majority of people. It's the same way that you inherit your hair or eye color from your parents or grandparents.

NRC Website

Facebook

Twitter

Youtube

Instagram

Copyright © 2019 Children & Adults with ADHD—CHADD, All rights reserved.
4601 Presidents Drive, Suite 300
Lanham, MD 20706

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can subscribe to the newsletter or unsubscribe from this list