ADHD Resource Corner

The Job Accommodation Network provides a list of accommodation ideas for the workplace that adults with ADHD will find helpful. The ideas are categorized by limitations including:

- attentiveness/concentration
- disruptive behavior
- executive functioning deficits
- managing time
- memory loss
- multitasking
- organizing/planning/prioritizing, and
- social skills

For each limitation, a list of products, services or strategies is presented. Links are made to the products and vendors for easy access. Brief stories of workers' situations and solutions can also be read on this page.

Don't forget!

2nd Quarter Financial Reports Due

Financial reports for quarter ending December 31, 2018 are due by January 31, 2019.

Also, please don't forget those pesky receipts! You can scan and email reports to affiliate-services@chadd.org or continue to send via snail mail to the National office.

Happy New Year!

In last month's column, we shared that AAB members were focusing on prioritizing the many ideas that came out of the Affiliate Training Day session in St. Louis. Since then, the AAB has met to discuss the topics and establish priorities for its work over the coming months. At the top of the list is a review of policies and procedures, beginning with the overarching "CHADD Chapter/Affiliate Principles".

AAB members are working on re-writing this document and value input from all Affiliates; a draft with proposed changes will be shared for comments after our February meeting. In the meantime, if you have recommended changes to policies or procedures posted to the CHADD Volunteer Leader Center, please share them with any of the AAB members (whose contact information is shown below.)
