Attention

LIVING WELL WITH ADHD

Attention is published bimonthly by CHADD, the nation's leading nonprofit organization serving people with ADHD. The magazine is published in both a print and digital edition.

Produced six times per year, Attention provides science-based information and support. Recognized for its excellence, Attention offers articles by foremost experts in the field, experienced parents, innovative educators, as well as individuals who are thriving with the disorder.

CHADD also publishes Attention monthly, an e-newsletter that includes BEST OF THE ADHD BLOGS, inspiring human-interest stories, practical advice and strategies for parents of children with ADHD as well as adults with ADHD, plus information and announcements about current CHADD programs. A special EDUCATORS EDITION is also produced each month.

Who will you reach by advertising in Attention magazine?
 You'll reach the DECISION-MAKERS who choose the treatments, products, schools, and services for themselves or their children—as well as the professionals who make recommendations and influence their decisions.

You want to reach the people we reach. Reach them with us.

Attention magazine

Attention magazine is the premier benefit of CHADD membership. All CHADD members receive the print edition as well as full access to the digital edition through the web.

CHADD currently has approximately 10,000 members, most of whom are families of children and adults with ADHD. CHADD has more than 200 local chapters throughout the United States.

About 2,000 CHADD members are professionals who provide clinical and other services to people with ADHD.

Attention magazine is also available by subscription. Non-members can choose to subscribe to either the print or digital edition.

AGE

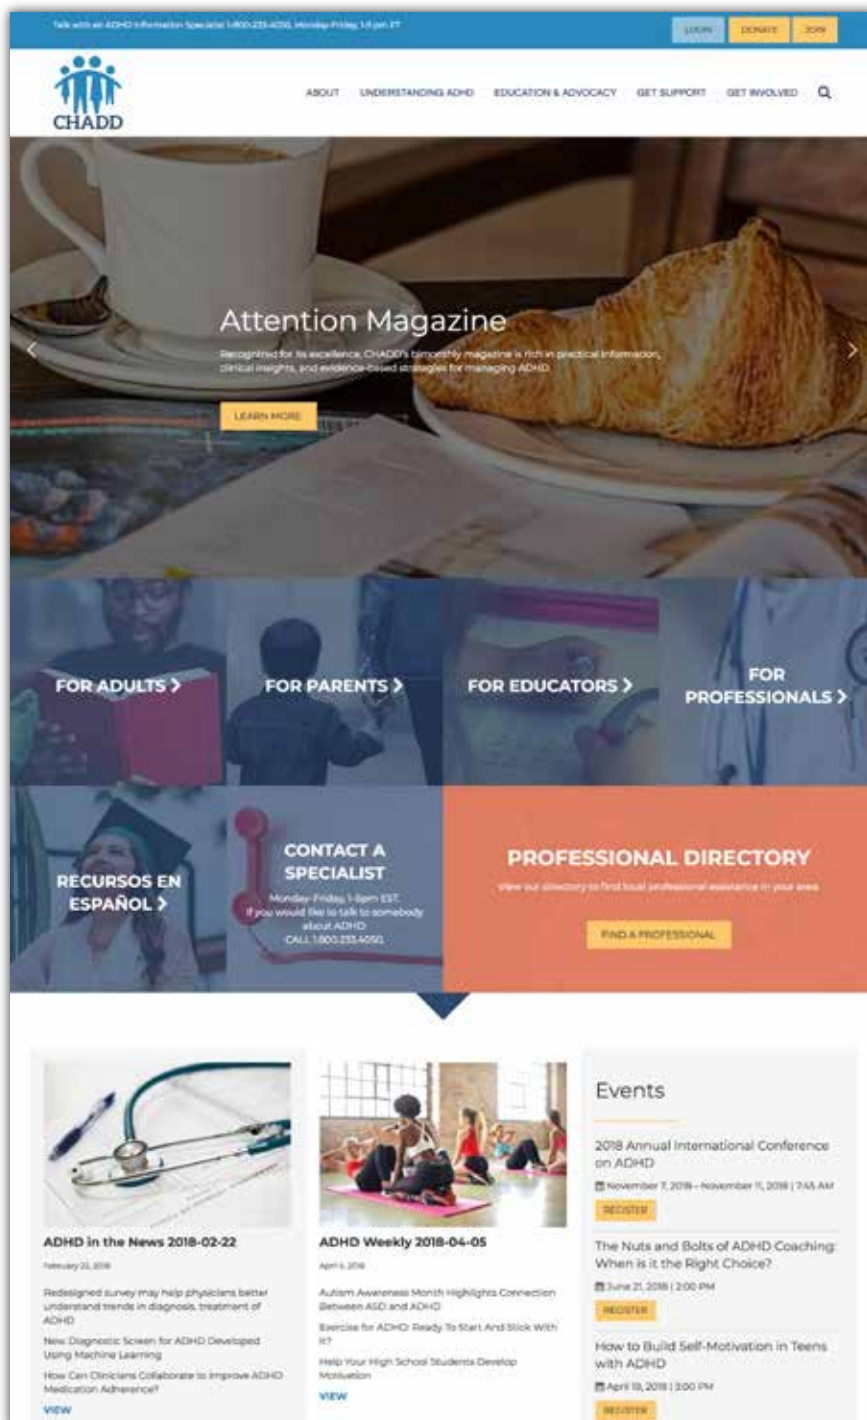

CHADD—Children and Adults with Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder—has been making a difference in the lives of people affected by ADHD for more than 30 years. The nonprofit organization was founded in 1987 to improve the lives of people affected by ADHD through education, advocacy, and support.

CHADD is at the forefront of creating and implementing programs and services in response to the needs of people with ADHD through collaborative partnerships and advocacy, including training parents and teachers, hosting educational webinars and workshops, being an informative clearinghouse for the latest evidence-based ADHD information, and providing a team of health information specialists to support the ADHD community.

CHADD publishes an informative website as well as training manuals and monographs of specific interest to educators, professionals, and parents. CHADD sponsors an annual international conference on ADHD and actively advocates for people affected by ADHD. CHADD’s National Resource Center on ADHD is the CDC-funded national clearinghouse for evidence-based information about ADHD.
