John a can be a quirky kid, but is generally liked by his teachers and classmates. His poor executive functioning skills cause him to struggle. He takes medication to assist him and needs to go the nurses office discreetly daily at 1 pm. We can be reached by text, email, or phone and are looking forward to working with you!

I LOVE: My dog, french fries, sports, Disney World, and cars.

WHAT DOESN'T WORK
- Time Constraints
- Sudden Changes
- Neurotypical Expectations
- Telling me to ...
- Try Harder
- Pay Attention
- Stop Moving
- I need to look you at to listen
- Stop doodling; helps me focus
- My Mistakes are Careless
- Taking Away Recess

WHAT WORKS
- Extra Time
- Consistency & Routines
- NeuroDivergent Acceptance
- Fidgets
- Breaks
- Consistency
- Schedules/Routines
- Preferential Seating
- Assign Jobs So I Can Move
- Tell Me What I'm Doing Right
- Positive Redirection
