Chapter Progress Report

Chapter leaders, your voice fuels CHADD's mission. Be sure to submit your progress report so we can keep the momentum strong!

Your insight drives our work forward, and here's why it truly matters:

- ✓ Strengthens outreach by showing the real impact chapters are making in their communities.

- ✓ Supports grant requirements by providing the data needed to secure and maintain funding.
- ✓ Ensures we're effectively serving the ADHD community with programs that reflect their needs.
- ✓ Helps everyone grow by sharing successes, challenges, and creative ideas across chapters.

The reporting period is July 2025-January 2026. Information you will need includes:

- Number of current volunteers in your chapter
- New volunteers between July and January
- Volunteers who have stepped down between July 2025 and January 2026
- Current chapter roles in your chapter
- Recurring chapter support groups/meetings you host
- Other chapter activities outside of regular meetings

Thank you for taking the time to complete your report by Friday, February 27, 2026.

Two Ways to Submit

Option 1:

Log into your member portal and scroll down to the CHAPTER PORTAL to upload your report. Be sure to include your chapter name on all documents you upload. Check out the quick and easy instructions below to learn more.

UPLOAD INSTRUCTIONS

Option 2:

Email your reporting forms, bank statements, and receipts to Chapter_Services@CHADD.org. Please include in the subject line FY26-Q2 Financials, Chapter Code, and Chapter Name.

✦ Secondary Reminder: If you haven't submitted your FY26-Q1 financial report for July 1 -September 30, 2025, please complete that as well so we can keep everything up to date. You can include both Q1 and Q2 in one report.

Thank you for making this a priority. Your commitment keeps our community thriving!

Understanding Family Perspectives to Better Support Black Children With ADHD

Joy Banks, PhD, uses real-world examples to show how teachers and school administrators can build meaningful partnerships with families of Black children diagnosed with ADHD. Cultural awareness can help educators work more effectively with families and support equitable outcomes for diverse learners. Learn how family experiences and systemic barriers shape ADHD identification and support—and what helps. Be sure to share with your chapter!
